Persil Professional Non Biological Tablets

Tough on stain removal, kind next to skin

Features

Non biological washing tablets for outstanding cleaning on tough stains. Persil tablets are a quick and simple solution for your laundry. Simply place the tablets directly into the washing machine drawer – there's no need for any measuring. As the tablets are pre-measured they help prevent overdosing and because they are concentrated just two small tablets are enough to deliver brilliant results. Persil's non biological formulation is dermatologically tested and suitable for sensitive skin. There are 160 tablets per pack (80 washes).
